

CONFIRMATION OF PARTICIPATION

Dr. Paul Morrissey
from United Kingdom

Participated on October 29, 2010 in Berlin in the certification course ATRAD – Certificate I on

The Extracorporeal Radial Shock Wave Therapy in theory and practice

Schedule of the course: 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

President : Dr. med. Max Henzen

References: Felix Egloff, Prof. Dr. med. Markus Maier and Dr. med. Max Henzen

Organizer:
ATRAD Association for
Radial Pain Therapy
ATRAD Office in Switzerland
c/o Felix Egloff
Limmattalstrasse 206
CH-8049 Zürich

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Max Henzen', is written over a horizontal line.

Dr. med. Max Henzen
ATRAD President

ATRAD, the Association for Radial Pain Therapy, promotes research and application of Extracorporeal Shockwave Therapy (ESWT) using the Swiss DolorClast® method (i.e., Radial Shock Wave Therapy) and national and international dissemination of knowledge from science and practice in the interests of improving patient care.

Based on successful participation in the ATRAD certification course on 29 October 2010 in Berlin (Germany),
ATRAD awards

Dr. Paul Morrissey
from United Kingdom

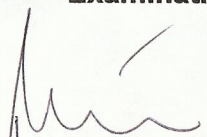

the

ATRAD Certificate I

The certification course comprised the following topics:

- Basic knowledge and main characteristics for further use and practice
- Application of shock waves for the following indications: calcifying tendinitis of the shoulder, epicondylitis humeri radialis, plantar fasciopathy, achilles tendinopathies, other tendon and ligament pathologies, trigger point treatment, pseudoarthrosis, wound healing
- General questions on the application, experience, current scientific literature and publications
- Legal and regulatory aspects, reimbursement questions
- Hands-on workshop
- Examination

Prof. Dr. med. Markus Maier
(Starnberg, Germany)
Head ATRAD Trainer

Dr. Max Henzen
(Bellinzona, Switzerland)
President of ATRAD